Hakonson adds veteran driver

When the Stouffville-based Ed Hakonson Racing team shifts into gear to start the 2011 NASCAR Canadian Tire Series this weekend they will do it with not just one car.

But two.

Hakonson, former owner of the Stouffville Spirit Jr. A hockey club, announced Don Thomson Jr. will join Jason Hathaway as the team's two drivers for the season.

A long-time competitor on the NASCAR Canadian Tire Series circuit, Thomson Jr. will pilot the No. 8 Farmers Feed Families Dodge Challenger for the 12-race schedule.

Drivers will travel from British Columbia to Nova Scotia, taking in seven oval track events and five road course events including two street courses.

The 2011 season opener will take place Saturday at Mosport International Raceway.

Hathaway will continue to drive the team's Snap-On Tools Dodge.

"Ed (Hakonson) and his family have given me a great opportunity and we are looking forward to a great season for both of our teams," Thomson Jr. said in a media release.

Hakonson is anticipating great results from his two-car stable this season.

"The addition of Donnie to our program is a great step for all of our teams. He is a hard working person with a great work ethic both on and off the track. We are looking forward to some wins this season for our family of teams."

The 2011 season opener will take place Saturday at Mosport International Raceway.

Former Stouffville resident sixth in women's pro golf tour opener

Seema Sadekar finished in a six-way tie for sixth place at the season-opening event on the 2011 CN Canadian Women's Tour at Squamish Valley Golf Club in Squamish, B.C.

A former Stouffville resident and member of the University of Las Vegas-Nevada women's golf team, the 25-year-old Sadekar carded a two-round 144 (73-71) to finish at even par.

LPGA Tour member Jessica Shepley of Oakville shot a final round four-under-par 68 and defeated Joy Trotter, 20, of Chino Hills, Calif., in a four-hole play-off to win the event.

Through two rounds, Shepley and Trotter each had a five-under par 139.

The next CN Canadian Women's Tour stop takes place June 13 to 15 at Club de golf Beloeil in Beloeil, Que.
