

CRIME: Unwanted guests refuse to leave Hwy. 48 home Party crashing leads to assault charge

A 20-year-old Whitchurch-Stouffville woman has been charged with assault causing bodily harm following a party.

At about 1:30 a.m. May 15, York Regional Police were called to a Whitchurch-Stouffville home on Hwy. 48 in response to a disturbance.

According to police, the homeowner's daughter had a gathering that resulted in unwanted guests arriving and refusing to leave.

A verbal dispute ensued, which turned physical when the suspect assaulted an 18-year-old female victim. The victim was transported to the hospital where she was treated for minor injuries.

Charges laid in winter cycling mishap

A dispute between a motorist and cyclist has resulted in a 31-year-old Whitchurch-

Stouffville man being charged with dangerous operation of a motor vehicle, failure to remain at the scene and mischief under $5,000.

On Feb. 24, according to York Regional Police, a dispute between the cyclist and motorist occurred, resulting in the driver of the vehicle allegedly making intentional contact with the bicycle at the intersection of James Scott Drive and Markham Road in Markham.

The cyclist was able to move out of the way without serious injury, however, the driver continued on with the bike being dragged underneath the vehicle.

The vehicle and bike, both damaged, were later found in the Rouge Street and Dryden Court area.

A warrant for the suspect's arrest was issued April 1 and he was arrested May 20 after turning himself into York Regional Police.
