

NASCAR series checkered flag won by Stouffville team

Don Thomson Jr. has given the Stouffville-based Ed Hakonson Racing team its first victory of the NASCAR Canadian Tire season.

Thomson's Farmers Feed Families Dodge took the checkered flag in the Keystone Light 200 race at Delaware Speedway, just west of London, Saturday.

Thomson qualified ninth in the 20-car field.

"We had a great run tonight," Thomson said. "As the race got closer to the end, I knew if I saved my stuff I would have a chance at the win. Most of the drivers that we race with each week, like Scott (Steckly), are class acts and I am so happy to win this for Ed (Hakonson) and the Farmers Feed

SPORTS BRIEFS

Families team."

The win, coupled with two prior trips to the podium, enabled Thomson to hold down second place in the series standings and move to within 20 points of leader Steckly.

The other half of the Hakonson team, Jason Hathaway and his Snap on Tools/Vortex Brakes Pads/Rockstar Energy Drink Dodge, finished eighth.

Next on the schedule is the road course configuration for the Vortex Brake Pads 200 at Mosport International Raceway, near Bowmanville, June 26.

Mennos pumelled, fall below .500

The Stouffville Mennos did not receive a good pitching effort when they played the Oshawa Ravens in their Oshawa City and District Fastball League game in Oshawa Monday.

Neither did they play good defence.

Those factors resulted in the Mennos suffering a 7-1 loss to the Ravens.

The Ravens jumped on Mennos' starting pitcher Byron Baranieski, who surrendered four runs off three hits, two walks and several wild pitches in just 1-1/3 innings of work to take the loss.

Jay Nesbitt relieved Baranieski and finished the game.

The Mennos scored their lone run in the third inning on a run-scoring triple by short-stop Jeff Boadway.

Ravens' starting pitcher Jamie Baker tossed seven innings and gave up just four hits while striking out 11 Mennos batters to earn the win.

The Mennos' defence committed four errors, including three by the infield, that resulted in two unearned Ravens' runs.

Now 3-4 on the season, the Mennos were to return to Oshawa last night for a game against the Oshawa Rebels.
