Navy's 100th being marked

COMMUNITY BRIEFS

The 100th anniversary of the Canadian Navy will be celebrated at Stouffville's Royal Canadian Legion Branch 459 with a planting of a Navy Lady Rose.

The dedication takes place Sunday at 1 p.m. The event is being hosted by the legion and the ladies auxiliary.

The rose is a tribute to the Canadian Navy shipmates.

Due to a shortage of sailors in wartime, in 1942, the navy organized a women's division of the Royal Canadian Navy - the WRCNS. This was not an auxiliary but a formed unit of the Royal Canadian Navy.

The purpose of the Canadian Naval Centennial is to build and strengthen in Canadians an appreciation for their navy and to promote the navy's role within the Canadian Forces.

A reception in the banquet hall follows the ceremony.

The legion is located at 150 Mostar St.

More events for Princess

A two-day garage sale earlier this month netted the Princess Alaina Fund about $3,700.

But organizers are not done their fundraising for the 18-month-old who has been diagnosed with surfactant deficiency.

This Friday, a car wash from 8 a.m. to noon will be held at the Stouffville Auto Wash, 37 Winona Dr.

Boston Pizza will be hosting Princess Alaina Day, July 12 from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. during which 10 per cent of the sales will be donated to the fund.

A benefit is also planned for July 17, noon to 4 p.m. at the Grand Baccus in Toronto. Tickets are $90 for adults and $70 for kids 12 and under and can be purchased at Evangelos Jewellery, Stouffville Auto Wash, the Grand Baccus Banquet Hall or by calling Luisa Amabile at 905-642-5071, Karen Edwards at 905-201-7337 or Pierina Priore at 905-201-9076.

All event proceeds will go towards Alaina's medical needs.
