It's a popular local tradition of the tasty variety.

The Stouffville Lions annually kick off the 27th annual Strawberry Festival with their beef barbecue. It's on Thursday from 4:30 to 7 p.m. at the picnic shelter in Memorial Park - a Lions project.

Last year's barbecue sold out after serving 1,100 diners.

Tickets are $15 for adults and $12.50 for seniors and children. A hot dog special costs

$6. Tickets are available at the event or in advance at Scotiabank, TD Canada Trust, Barthau Jewelers, Chas. Richards & Sons and Cards TV & Appliances.

Lions and their spouses prepare and serve the meal and tear down all in the same day. They get help from the town, including Bruce Hatt and his crew, and support from local suppliers Leadbetter Meats, Barry's Gardens and No Frills.

Funds raised help fund student vision screening, Christmas baskets, family assistance and town projects.
