COMMUNITY

Theatre group looking for help

Calling all Stouffville thespians and handy people.

The Markham Little Theatre is looking for Stouffville residents who are interested in being a part of a new local contingent.

Markham Little Theatre plans on presenting another show at the Lebovic Centre for Arts and Entertainment - Nineteen on the Park next year and it requires people to help with stage management, set building, lighting, sound, costumes, hair, make-up, set dressing, properties, ticket sales, marketing and acting.

For more information or to express your interest, contact Priscilla Marr at 905-640-1621 or e-mail stouffvilleplayers@gmail.com

In 2010, Markham Little Theatre staged a production of Shirley Valentine in Stouffville and followed it up with Storm Warning earlier this year.

Lions honoured for run work

The Stouffville Lions Club was honoured this week for its work with the Terry Fox Run.

Stouffville run co-ordinator Sandy Schell-Kennedy presented club members with certificates of appreciation for their first (2000-2009) and second decades of commitment (2010 and beyond).

Club members assist with safety at the annual event.

This year's run will be held Sept. 18 at the Lebovic Leisure Centre/Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library complex.

For more information, e-mail schellkenedy@rogers.com or go to terryfox.org/Run/
