Four Spartans tackle berths on provincial rugby teams

Four Stouffville District Secondary School students who played on the bantam, junior and senior boys' rugby teams earned berths on four different provincial age group teams when the final rosters were announced Sunday.

Matt Avoledo, a winger on the bantam boys' team and a Grade 9 student, was named to the provincial under-15 team.

J.R. Newlands, a Grade 10 student who played hooker for the Spartan juniors, was chosen for the under-16 provincial squad.

Connor McDonald, a Grade 12 student and lock on the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Association silver-medal winning team, will play for the under-18 team.

Named to the under-20 provincial team was Jesse Lofthouse, a Grade 12 student who played outside centre or wing for the OFSAA silver-medal Spartan senior team.

Knox on overseas hockey mission

Liz Knox will be taking her netminding exploits to Bratislava, Slovakia, next week.

The Stouffville resident who tended goal and earned numerous honours playing in net with the Wilfrid Laurier University Golden Hawks women's ice hockey team, will be one of 16 players representing Hockey Canada's national women's program. They will participate in the 2011 International Ice Hockey Federation High Performance Women's Camp, which will bring together coaches and players from 17 countries to help grow the female game worldwide.

A Stouffville District Secondary School graduate, Knox will be one of four Canada senior team goaltenders who will be at the camp from July 4 to 12.

The camp is just one of several global development initiatives taking place over the next five years as part of the IIHF's commitment to narrowing the female hockey gap between North America and the rest of the world.
