The Stouffville Mennos overcame a one-run deficit and erupted for five runs in the third inning en route to their fourth straight win, a 7-2 verdict over the Oshawa Bombers 7-2 in Oshawa City and District Fastball League action at Memorial Park Thursday.

Trailing 1-0 in the third, the Mennos sent 10 batters to the plate and generated five hits, including a two-run double from Robert Kay, while drawing three walks to score five runs.

Greg Dalgarno surrendered seven hits and two runs while striking out nine batters in six-plus innings of work to earn the win.

runners on base and retired the final three batters to shut the door on the Bombers.

Kay and Jeff Boadway led the Mennos' offence with two hits apiece.

Nick Yeh was the starting pitcher for the Bombers and took the loss.

After taking part in a tournament in Huntsville this weekend, the Mennos, now 7-6 on the season, are scheduled to resume league play against the league-leading Scarborough Athletics Thursday at Memorial Park at 8:30 p.m.
