

Doyle new Spirit captain

The Stouffville Spirit hasn't even opened its 2011-12 Ontario Junior Hockey League training camp.

But when the puck is dropped to start the season, it has its leadership established after anointing their captain and assistant captains Wednesday.

Andrew Doyle was named the club's captain while Christian Finch, Chris Porter and Paul Geiger will be assistants.

A Richmond Hill native, Doyle, 19, will be entering his third season with the Spirit. The six-foot, three-inch, 183-pound forward was the club's most sportsmanlike player for the 2010-11 campaign.

Recently earning a scholarship to Clarkson University for 2012, Finch, 20, was the second-leading scorer on the Spirit last season with 29 goals and 54 assists.

A Stouffville native entering his third season with the Spirit, Porter, 19, had 19 goals and 22 assists.

STOUFFVILLE NATIVES NAMED ASSISTANTS

Also a Stouffville native, Geiger, 18, was the Spirit's most improved player during the 2010-11 season.

"All are committed to improving themselves as hockey players and have proven to be among the hardest working players on and off the ice," Spirit head coach Craig Donovan said. "Each has improved tremendously during their Spirit careers due to their work ethic and will no doubt set a great example for current and future Spirit players."

The Spirit opens the 2011-12 regular season on the road against the Huntsville Otters Sept. 9 at 7:30 p.m.

The Spirit's first home game is slated for Sept. 11 against the Orangeville Flyers at 2:30 p.m. at the Stouffville Arena.

The Spirit has 14 Sunday afternoon home dates along with nine Thursday evening tilts and one Monday game, Thanksgiving Day Oct. 10, against the Markham Waxers at 2:30 p.m.

The Spirit will also play the Otters as a part of the league's Governor's Showcase weekend event in Cobourg Oct. 15 at 4:30 p.m.
