SO YOU THINK YOU CAN DANCE

York dancers make field of 14

BY SANDRA BOLAN

Fourteen dancers remain on So You Think You Can Dance Canada, with all six from York Region still vying for the title of Canada's Favourite Dancer.

But it was a close call Tuesday night for Newmarket's Joey Arrigo and Thornhill's Shane Simpson who, along with their partners, landed in the bottom three couples, based on audience votes.

Each dancer had one last chance to prove to the judges, who made the final decision on who went home, why they should remain in the competition.

For Mr. Arrigo's performance, he danced a technically challenging, flip-filled contemporary piece, which the audience approved of.

His performance was followed by Mr. Simpson's contemporary number, which highlighted his technical training.

This was the first time Mr. Arrigo and Mr.

Simpson were in the bottom six dancers.

But it was Kevin Howe from Ottawa and Edmonton's Shelaina Anderson who were eliminated.

Along with Mr. Arrigo and Mr. Smith, York Region is represented by Adam LoPapa (Woodbridge), Geisha Chin (Richmond Hill), Lindsay Leuschner (Stouffville) and Melissa Mitro (Richmond Hill).

The show airs Mondays and Tuesdays at 8 p.m. on CTV.

Boston Pizza in Stouffville is hosting Lindsay viewing nights on Mondays.
