

Lacrosse players strike Ontario gold

Three Stouffville residents were members of the Markham Thunder intermediates that captured the provincial B division championship at last week's Ontario Lacrosse Festival, capped off with a 6-3 win over the Guelph Regals in the final in Whitby.

Cole Fullerton, Cody Cyr and Skylar Almgren each played an integral role in helping the Thunder reel off five victories in as many outings en route to winning the title.

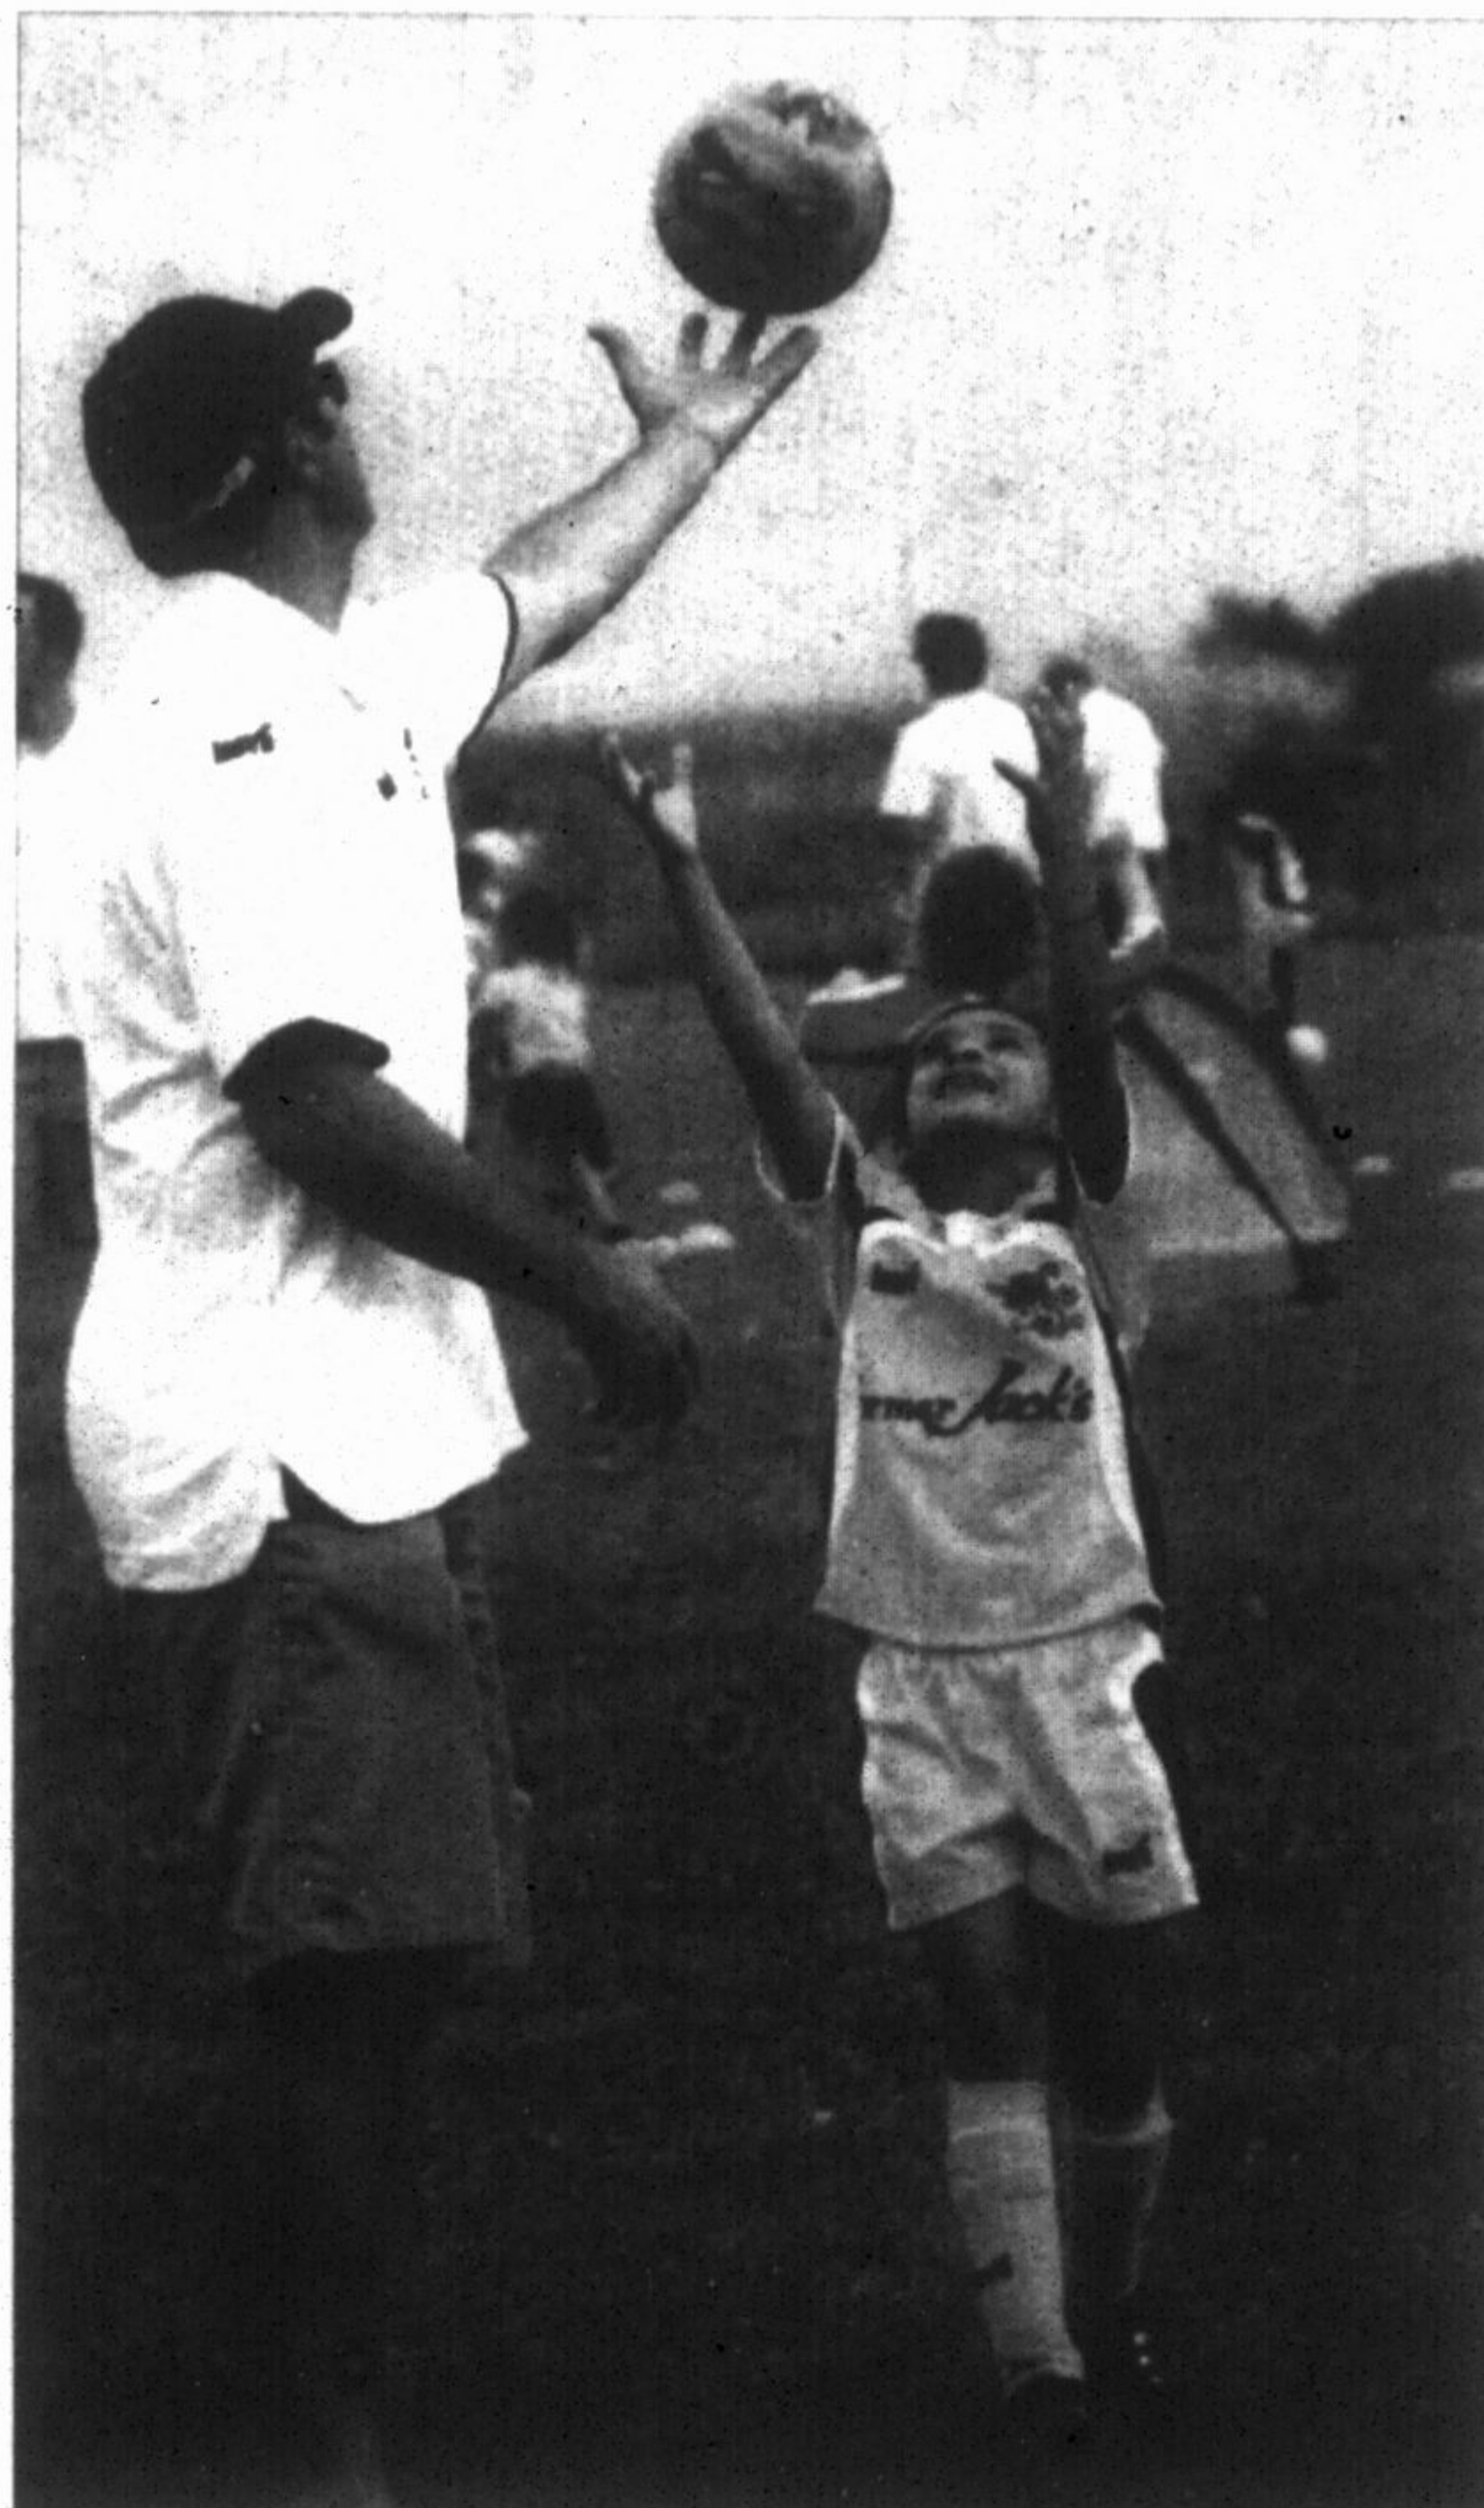

In the championship final, Almgren scored a goal and added two assists.

Fullerton, who serves as an assistant captain, recorded a goal and one helper while Almgren added a goal and two assists in Markham's opening game win over Arthur 9-4.

In Markham's third game, a 5-0 victory over Niagara-on-the-Lake, Fullerton delivered a goal and added two helpers while Almgren contributed two assists.

Almgren scored a pair of goals to ignite the Thunder to a 5-3 win over Stayner in their fourth game that vaulted them into the final.
