

Vic Rauter emceeding Hockey Night

TSN curling guru Vic Rauter will be on a different type of ice in Stouffville next Thursday.

Rauter will emcee Hockey Night in Stouffville, a charity game hosted by Oak Ridges-Markham MP Paul Calandra at the Stouffville Arena.

Also added to the agenda is Sean Jones. Formerly with the Juno award and MuchMusic Video award winning band In Essence, he will sing the national anthem.

Tickets are $20 and can be purchased at:

- Mr. Calandra's office, 6060 Main St. in Stouffville
 - the Stouffville Legion, 150 Mostar St.
 - the Stouffville Arena Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m.
 - Boston Pizza, Hoover Park Drive.
- For more details, call 905-640-1125.

Rain plays havoc with Stouffville NASCAR team in Quebec

Mother Nature did not do any favours for the Stouffville-based Ed Hakonson Racing team when their two-car entry took to the Grand Prix de Trois-Rivieres track in Trois-Rivieres, Que. for the Canadian Tire NASCAR Series GP3R 100 event Sunday.

With the skies opening up and dousing the 10-turn road course, Don Thomson and Jason Hathaway encountered difficulties in handling the adverse conditions.

Starting seventh in the 33-car field, Thomson and his Farmers Feed Families Dodge elected to back off and not run in the spray of his competitors before finishing 16th.

"That was the craziest race I have ever driven. You could not see three feet in front of you and there are concrete walls and cars everywhere," Thomson said.

"I'm glad the car is in one piece, but disappointed in our finish. We will get one more shot at the road courses at Montreal in a few weeks and we will be ready to make up for this weekend."

Driving his Snap on Tools/Vortex Brake Pads/Rockstar Energy Drink Dodge and with his right hand remaining in a cast after incurring a crash at Mosport International Raceway in June, Hathaway began the race in 23rd place.

He finished 26th.

The next event is the Autopro 100 Aug. 20 in Montreal.

Gurdial 5th in CJGA linksters event

Alex Gurdial carded a one-round, nine hole 11-over par 40 to finish fifth in his age group division at the Canadian Junior Golf Association's Ontario Junior Linkster Series at Cardinal Golf Club near Kettleby last Thursday.

Entered in the Boys 8 and Under division, the Stouffville resident finished four shots behind winner Justin Chong of Mississauga.
