

PROVINCIAL ELECTION 2011

Elections Ontario hiring 700

Want to work during the provincial election?

Elections Ontario is hiring more than 70,000 "energetic, organized and motivated" people to work between Sept. 7 and election day, Oct. 6.

On average, between 700 and 800 people will be hired to work in each of the 107 electoral districts across Ontario, including Oak Ridges-Markham locally.

Returning officers, who manage the districts, will look for people with customer service experience and fluency in languages other than English.

French-speaking applicants are encouraged to apply. Previous election experience is an asset.

Election and customer-service training will be provided.

Pay per day ranges from about $150 for an information assistant to $315 for an area manager.

You can apply now online at wemakevotingeasy.ca or via e-mail at info@elections.on.ca

Starting Sept. 7, you can apply by phone or in person at a local returning office.

For more information, call 1-888-ONT-VOTE.

Jaczek holds community barbecue Sunday

Dr. Helena Jaczek, MPP for Oak Ridges-Markham, will host her fourth annual community barbecue at Memorial Park in downtown Stouffville this Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m.

Food offerings will include hamburgers, veggie dogs, hotdogs, samosas, ice cream and popcorn.

There will be face painting, a jumping castle, fun fair games for the children and performances by Stouffville Academy of Dance and Music, Margaret Maye, L'Arche Day-break's Spirit Movers and a variety of other local entertainers.

A raffle will be held for the chance to win a variety of door prizes.

For more details call the constituency office at 905-294-4931 or toll free 1-866-531-9551.

Wassef opens campaign office Saturday

The grand opening of the Farid Wassef campaign office will be held Saturday between noon and 2 p.m. Mr. Wassef is the PC candidate for the Oak Ridges-Markham riding and his office will be located at 6601 Main St. Stouffville, at the corner of Main and Stouffer streets.

Special guest speaker will be Progressive Conservative MPP for Newmarket-Aurora, Frank Klees.

Election day is Oct. 6.
