

No harness racing at Markham Fair

One of the mainstays of the Markham Fair - Sept. 29 to Oct. 2 - will ride off into the sunset as the popular fall agricultural celebration has announced it will no longer host harness racing.

In an era of organized lotteries, provincially-sanctioned casinos and online gaming, the once large crowds have dwindled in recent years and interest in harness racing generally has waned, the fair says - despite the fact the fair attracts up to 70,000 visitors.

Bothered by your discolored toenails?

We want to see them.

Does part of your big toenail look yellow or brownish in color? It could be nail fungus. Not only is toenail fungus unsightly and embarrassing, but it can spread - to your other toes, from foot to hand, or even to family members.

Right now, doctors at Lynderm Research are conducting a research study of an investigational medication for nail fungus that may help. This medication is clear and applied directly to the nail. If you join, you will receive the nail medication and all study-related care at no cost. You will also be compensated for your time.

Candidates differ on sign damage

More than 30 of Oak Ridges-Markham PC candidate Farid Wassef's campaign signs were vandalized, removed or moved late last week.

"It's disappointing. ... I can't believe someone would do this," Mr. Wassef's campaign director, Paul Barker, said, "[we have] a democratic society, free speech and the right to campaign."

Oak Ridges-Markham NDP candidate Joe Whitfield spent the weekend putting up his signs and noticed some were knocked down.

"I doubt there's any foul play," he said. "I have a sign pounder, but the wind seems to be taking (them)."

Removing, altering or damaging election signs on public or private property are criminal offences, York Regional Police Const.

Rebecca Boyd said. The punishment for both mischief and theft under $5,000 is up to two years in prison, according to Const. Boyd.

'It's disappointing. ... I can't believe someone would do this.'

Depending on the situation, other provincial charges, such as trespassing, could also be enforced, she added.

If you have information, call police, Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-tips, leave an anonymous tip at 1800222tips.com or text to CRIMES (274637) starting with the word YORK.
