Artists creating for October shows

The Palettes of Whitchurch will hold its annual art show and sale during the Thanksgiving weekend, Oct. 8 to 10.

The group includes several local artists who will display more than 100 works in acrylic, oil and watercolour.

The show will be at the Lemonville Community Centre, McCowan Road south of Bloomington Road, the group's home for 15 years.

Show times are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. Admission is free.

Studio tour has 23 stops

The 11th annual Stouffville Studio Tour will feature 36 artists in 23 venues Oct. 15 and 16.

Painting media will include acrylic, encaustic, oil, Sumi-e and watercolours. There will also be artists who produce graphite drawings, glass works, jewelry, metal and stone sculptures, pastels, photography, pottery, totems, wood block printing and wood-turning.

The self-guided tour is on from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days. Admission is free. For more information go to stouffvillestudiotour.com

Choral group seeks new voices

Can you carry a tune? Bach to Blues is seeking tenors and basses.

"We are a friendly choral group who love to sing and perform in concerts to entertain and to raise funds for worthwhile causes in our community of Stouffville," said spokesperson Luanne Griffin.

For more information, call 905-649-2684.

Pace Makers entertain seniors

The Pace Makers will entertain during the Silver Jubilee Plus 55 Club's soup lunch Monday at noon.

Tickets are $8. All seniors are welcome. The club is at Main and Market streets in downtown Stouffville.
