

COMING UP: Palettes of Whitchurch weekend show

Members of the Palettes of Whitchurch are preparing for their show this weekend in Lemonville. Admission is free.

Artists serving up Thanksgiving tradition

Take a break from your Thanksgiving indulgence and feast your eyes on some art at the 15th annual Palettes of Whitchurch Art Show and Sale this Saturday to Monday. "There's really something for anybody from the young couple just starting out, to the single person. You have original art work here," said Josie Schwarzli, an original member of the Palettes of Whitchurch, presenting the show. Along with Ms Schwarzli, other local artists showing and selling their work include Hedy Hugget, Martha Robertson and Martha Wusiatak. Most of the pieces available are done in acrylics or water colours and includes everything from still-life to landscapes to cityscapes as well as realistic and expressionistic work. "A lot of the paintings are very well-priced considering economic times," Ms Schwarzli said, noting more than 100 pieces will be for sale. The show runs from Oct. 8 to 10 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day at the Lemonville Community Centre, 13453 McCowan Rd., just south of Bloomington Rd. Admission is free.
