

Stonehouse taking golf career to Newfoundland course

Ted Stonehouse has come a long way from shagging range balls at the Maples of Ballantrae golf course on Hwy. 48 at the ripe old age of 11.

Now 40, the Stouffville native has been named director of golf at Clovelly Golf Club in St. John's, Nfld.

He had been general manager and head golf pro at the Bell Bay Golf Club in Baddeck, Cape Breton, for the past 13 years.

Stonehouse has won three PGA of Canada awards during his career.

His family opened Stonehouse House of Travel in Stouffville before moving to the Maritimes.
