and another sister, Hanna, 21.

The couple have been together for five years, but were not engaged.

"We all knew they were very much in love and planning their future," said his aunt, Debbie Bradley.

The snowcross number of Mr. Knox - 505 - paid homage to his relationship with Ms Love. The number represents when they first started dating - May 2005.

"She was like a sister to us," said Hanna.

Both sisters agreed he was the best brother anyone could ask for.

The Stouffville District Secondary School graduate also had a lot of friends.

"Everybody who met him just knew how genuine and loving he was," Hanna said.

"He was just an unbelievably awesome kid, just loved everybody, loved life," Ms Bradley said.

Mr. Knox started working for Kettleby-based Advanced Construction Techniques right out of high school as an apprentice, according to Kendall.

Mr. Knox was scheduled to write his crane ticket exam next week to become a fully licensed crane operator, she said.

"He was so passionate about his job," Kendall said.

Along with his friends and family, Mr. Knox leaves behind his beagle Cooper, who "wasn't always the best dog but he loved him," Hanna said.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by the O'Neill Funeral Home. Details to follow.
