

Girls team takes Motown

The Stouffville-Markham bantam A Stars captured the gold medal in their second straight hockey tournament of the season with a 1-0 win over the Michigan IceBreakers in the Motown Cup in Detroit last weekend.

As the only Canadian team in the girls tournament, the Stars finished the round robin portion with a 3-0 won-loss record after defeating the Rochester Batters 7-1, the host IceBreakers 3-1 and Mt Clemens Lady Wolves 8-0.

That record enabled the Stars to gain a berth in the final and set up a rematch with the IceBreakers.

Coached by Scott Bullock, Jeff

Butterworth, Dave Harvey, Deb Bradley and Massimo Lozzi, team members included Abby Bauman, Valerie Politis-Barber, Mary Craig, Emma Bullock, Anna Horner, Julia Schell, Kate Stephens, Mariah Beckett, Brett Belanger, Jamie Risi, Savannah Yule, Julia Harvey, Amanda Ramsbottom, Kelsey Bradley, Julia Hembruff and goal-tenders Lauren Butterworth and Renee Lozzi.

season by winning the University of Toronto Invitational at the Angus Glen Golf Club's north course in Unionville last weekend.

The Ballantrae resident, who is in his freshman year, carded a two-round 146 to share top spot with Traynor Turkiewicz of the University of Western Ontario in the individual competition.

The University of Waterloo men's team shot a combined 593 to win the event by 11 strokes.

The Warriors look to continue their hot play as they travel to Hamilton for the one-day McMaster Invitational at the Beverly Golf Club today.

Major bantam AEs win three

The Stouffville major bantam AE Clippers started October well with three victories in minor hockey action.

The Clippers started the month off with a 6-0 road win over Orillia.

Chad Harbour scored twice while Justin Pelowich-Pickup, Nicholas Davids, Braydon McNeil and Jason Mistelbacher had singles.

Nicholas Davids and Mario Rosano each had two assists while Jake Espey, Mistelbacher, Tritan Thompson and McNeil had one.

Trevor Beaudoin recorded the shutout.

Playing host to the Markham Waxers Oct. 5, the Clippers received goals from Quintin Volpe, McNeil and Pelowich-Pickup in a 3-1 win.

Rosano, Jackson Newland, Cody Leonard and Mistelbacher were each credited with one helper.

Buoyed by a solid goaltending effort from B.J. Ivanovski and a pair of goals from Pelowich-Pickup, the Clippers blanked host Innisfil 3-0 the following day.

Tyler Wright added the other Clippers' marker. Braydon McNeil had two assists while Davids and Leonard each had one.
