DEVIL OF A TIME

Devin Gros, 8, and sister Alicia, 10, put on their best faces at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library's children's Halloween party last weekend. Trick-or-treaters will take part in today's Downtown Hunt for Candy from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. from the train station.

Seran Ketheswaran, 8, dressed as Wolverine chats with witch Deluksha Dhevakumar, 8, at the library's children's Halloween party. Watch for trick-or-treaters Monday night.

Relocation experts make move

Welcomehome Relocations has relocated.

After five years on Freel Lane, the organization outgrew its space and recently moved to 37 Sandiford Dr. It employs 13 people, most from the Stouffville area.

The company provides destination services to relocating employees and their families from domestic and international locations.

The company's services include orientations, finding rental properties, assisting with school and government registrations, finding health care professionals and anything else the employee may need help with, according to Lynn Fiorini, director of operations.

The company also provides executive-style temporary accommodations in certain city centres within Southwestern Ontario.

Welcomehome Relocations has also recently launched Welcomehome Lifestyles, which is a personal concierge and errand service company.

The relocation company started in the Stouffville home office of Judy McDougall and Nitin Badhwar in 1998.
