2011: The Year of Changes

This year will go down in history as one of great change, not only here in Canada, but around the world. From Canadians voting in a majority government for the first time since 2004 to unprecedented uprising in the Arab Spring of the Middle East to Occupy movements around the globe, rarely have we seen such change happen in such a short amount of time. We wait in anticipation of what 2012 will bring.
