

'Suspicious' man spotted at library

York Regional Police are reviewing surveillance video from the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library after receiving a call about a suspicious person walking the aisles of the building Thursday afternoon.

A woman studying in the Burkholder Street facility made the call. There was no contact between the two.

"The complainant felt she was being looked at oddly by this male suspect while he slowly walked by her in the library," said police spokesperson Sgt. Gary Philips. "Even though there has been no criminal act, the odd behaviour indicated by the complainant, is a concern."

The suspect is a white man in his twenties. He is five feet, 11 inches, 170 pounds with a medium build, brown eyes, light brown shoulder length hair and a scruffy beard. He was wearing silver sunglasses, a black baggy tuque, black pea coat and blue pants.

Anyone with information is asked to call York Regional Police's 5 District office at 1-866-876-5423, Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS, leave an anonymous tip online at www.1800222tips.com, or text a tip to CRIMES (274637) starting with the word YORK

Is your skin red around your forehead, cheeks, chin and nose?

Do you also get red bumps similar to acne on your face?

If so, please contact us to learn more about our research study of an investigational medication for adults with papulopustular rosacea.

Papulopustular rosacea is a type of rosacea marked by facial redness and acne-like bumps.

To qualify, you must:

- Be 18 years of age or older
- Have moderate to severe papulopustular rosacea
- Have a minimum of 15 papules or pustules on your face (acne-like red bumps)

Qualified participants will receive study-related evaluations and study medication at no cost, and may receive compensation for their time and travel.
