What is a Flat Iron Steak? A Flat Iron Steak is a cut from the shoulder of a steer. It is a well-marbled, very flavourful, very tender cut of beef. In fact, it's actually the second most tender cut of beef next to the tenderloin. Yup, it's actually more tender than a strip loin or rib eye. Try this versatile steak today and see why it has become a mainstay at many of Toronto's finest restaurants. What is a flat iron steak? It's the best steak you never had!
