

Christian School athletes shine

Students representing Stouffville Christian School gave a good account of themselves at the ACSI Track and Field Meet in Centennial Stadium in Etobicoke and York University after earning several top three placings.

Leading the bantam girls' contingent was Sarah Gillissie, who was first in the 200-metre run and 400m and second in high jump.

Julia Holmes was third in the running long jump. The bantam girls' finished second overall.

Among bantam boys, Lucas Vincent was second in the 200m, 200m and softball throw. The relay team of Alex Burns, Conor Hough, Thomas Masson and Vincent was second.

In the junior division, Katie Wiebe was third in the girls' 800m and Miriam Legemaate second high jump.

Blake Frost was second in the boys' 200m.

The Grade 7 girls, who finished first overall, were led by Nicole Burns with a first in triple jump, second long jump and third 800m. Madde Li was first in the 80m hurdles and high jump and second triple jump.

Christina Lucas was first in discus, second 80m hurdles and third in shot put. Hayley Stover was second in the 800m and fourth in 1,500m.

The relay team of Burns, Li, Lucas and Stover were second.

Tim Barker was second in the Grade 7 boys' discus.

The Grade 7/8 team finished fourth overall.

A total of 18 Christian schools with students ranging from grades 3 to 8 took part in the meet.

Coached by Loretta McGilp, participants in younger grades competed at Centennial Stadium while the grades 7 and 8 students were at York University.

Golf-soccer camp at Emerald Hills

Youngsters wishing to learn or improve their skills on the fairways and soccer pitch can have the best of both worlds this summer through a camp to take place in Whitchurch-Stouffville and neighbouring Aurora.

Operated by JTgolf, the camp's golf segment will take place at Emerald Hills Golf Club during the mornings under the direction of Justin Tomasulo, Canadian PGA lead instructor.

With the golf curriculum to follow the CN FutureLinks guidelines, participants will learn the game's basics under a relaxed atmosphere.

Part of the itinerary includes golf drills, small competitions, games and learning golf rules, etiquette and course management.

The camp's soccer segment, to take place at Aurora's Sheppard's Bush Park and the Aurora Sports Dome during the afternoon hours under the direction of David Thorburn, is designed to ensure all levels of players are catered to with the introduction of fun side games.

Operating from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., camp sessions are from: July 9-13 for those between the ages of six to 10; July 23-27 for youngsters between the ages of 11-15; Aug. 13-17 for youngsters six to 10 years old and Aug. 27-31 for those 11 to 15 years of age.
