Race team at home on podium

The Stouffville-based EHR Team Three Red made its third straight trip to the victory podium after Jason Hathaway drove the Snap-on Tools/Rockstar Energy Drink/Vortex Brake Pads Dodge to a second-place finish at the NASCAR Canadian Tire Edmonton 100 Sunday.

Hathaway qualified eighth for the 28-lap event during the first visit for the NASCAR Canadian Tire Series since 2010 at the newly configured 2.256-mile, 13-turn road course at Edmonton City Centre Airport.

"This was a great day today for this team," he said. "We ran top five all day and we just kept digging each lap. It got a little wild at the end, but we made it through and brought this team home another podium finish."

D.J. Kennington took the checkered flag.

In the overall series standings, Hathaway occupies fifth place with 223 points.

Ed Hakonson's EHR Team Three Red was in Saskatoon yesterday for the final race of the western swing at Auto Clearing Motor Speedway.
