St. Brendan is the name of the Catholic elementary school being built on Hoover Park Drive.

St. Brendan, Wendat openings on schedule

New Stouffville schools 'ready for September'

While-French speaking Catholic students will have to wait a couple of years for a local school — see story on page 1 — a new English-speaking Catholic elementary school is all set to open this fall on Hoover Park Drive at Ninth Line.

St. Brendan Catholic Elementary School has more than 450 students enrolled. That number is expected to increase to about 500 come the first day of school, Sept. 4, according to Julia Seeratan, communications officer for the York Catholic District School Board.

On that first day, yard supervision for students in grades 1 to 8 will start at 8:45 a.m. Teachers will have class lists. Grade numbers will also be posted and students are asked to congregate by the appropriate grade prior to the 9 a.m. bell.

An open house and meet the teacher event will take place at the school Sept. 6 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Its principal is Diane Sharp. Prior to the first day of school, parents are being asked to check www.schoolbuscity.com for bus stop information. Bus routes for St. Mark and St. Brigid Catholic elementary schools may also change due to the opening of St. Brendan, according to Ms Seeratan.

Wendat Public School is also brand new to Stouffville this September and is expected to be ready for the first day of class, according to Licinio Miguelo, York Region District School Board spokesperson.

Its principal is Lisa Jeremic. The junior kindergarten to Grade 8 school at Reeves Way Boulevard and Ken Laushway Avenue has an enrollment of 496. Mr. Miguelo said, noting some of the students will be transfers from Oscar Peterson, Glad Park and Harry Bowes public schools.

Wendat will be the third public elementary school in Whitchurch-Stouffville to offer full-day kindergarten. Whitchurch Highlands and Glad Park are the others, according to Mr. Miguelo.
