Two Stouffville residents were part of a Toronto Rugby Union boys' rugby team that won the gold medal at the recent Ontario Summer Games in Toronto.

Jon Ross Newlands and Matt Carrick helped the Toronto Rugby Union 'A' team defeat the Eastern Ontario Rugby Union 'A' team 29-24 in sudden death overtime in the final at York University.

The Toronto team overcame a 19-point deficit entering the second half.

Newlands, 17, who served as team captain, scored four tries during the tournament.

Carrick, 16, who was injured in the semifinals and final, scored two tries during the tournament.

"I was so proud and excited, being the captain of the winning team and a team of some good friends was an honor," an elated Newlands said of his experience in the Ontario Summer Games.

Spirit drop preseason game

The Stouffville Spirit suffered their second loss in a row in Ontario Junior Hockey League preseason action after falling 4-3 to the Lindsay Muskies at the Stouffville Arena Thursday.

Mike Morgan scored a pair of goals for the Spirit, who battled the Muskies to a 1-1 tie after one period and 2-2 through two before being outscored in the third stanza.

Nathanael Halbert scored the game's first goal for the Spirit just 62 seconds after the opening face-off and earned two assists.

Spirit starting goalie Brandon Tidman handled nine of 10 shots while GianLuca Palmieri stopped five of eight in playing the final half of the contest.
