

Hathaway to Nova Scotia after rough ride in Barrie

BY MICHAEL HAYAKAWA

Jason Hathaway was forced to overcome a couple of obstacles when he took the Stouffville-based Team Three Red's Snap-on Tools/Rockstar Energy Drink/Vortex Brake Pads Dodge onto the .333-mile Barrie Speedway oval for the NASCAR Canadian Tire Wahia Springs 300 event last weekend.

Setting his sights for a top-five finish, Hathaway's plans were delayed by a day when Mother Nature produced heavy rains to force a postponement of Saturday's main event.

With the race rescheduled Sunday, Hathaway started the 300-lap event in the seventh position and finished eighth.

Running as high as fifth place during the race, Hathaway got caught up with a car that spun in front of him on lap 202 which resulted in some front end damage to his vehicle.

After pitting for repairs, Hathaway went back out to challenge.

With 50 laps to go, he was running sixth.

But numerous cautions and a green white checkered finale cut Hathaway's chances short and he finished eighth in a vehicle missing some front end fibreglass.

"This was a crazy weekend. We had a good top-five car today, but some crazy driving out there by some drivers beat on our car," Hathaway said. "We got held up in a few spots with the traffic so tight.

"The crew did a great job getting me in and out of the pits and in contention all afternoon."

Pete Shepherd III, making his third start of the season, took the checkered flag.

Hathaway's next scheduled race will be this weekend in the Wilson Equipment 300 at Riverside Speedway in Antigonish, N.S.
