Latcham Gallery's Big Night Out is going Bollywood.

"To us, it represented fun and inclusion and something that we could all learn from and have some fun," said Jennifer Onlock, the gallery's fund development co-ordinator of this year's theme.

The fundraiser takes place Oct. 20 at the Lebovic Centre for Arts and Entertainment - Nineteen on the Park.

The money raised pays for the gallery's exhibitions, programs and community outreach.

This is the fourth annual Big Night Out event for the gallery, which has a fundraising goal of $18,000 this year, according to Ms Onlock.

The money raised pays for the gallery's exhibitions, programs and community outreach, she said.

As part of the event, there will be henna tattooing and a Rangoli art piece created on-site. Kama Entertainment, which was featured at the 2011 International Indian Film Academy awards, will perform as will local dancer Dolly Bollywood. She will also lead guests in a Bollywood dance class.

A silent auction will include tickets to see Brent Butt or Molly Johnson, the Art Gallery of Ontario and CN Tower, a golf pro consultation as well as paintings and hand-crafted items.

"So people can go home with an experience or a piece of art," Ms Onlock said.

Tickets are $40 each and available at www.latchamgallery.ca

Guests at the Latcham Gallery's Big Night Out will receive a Bollywood dance lesson Oct. 20 at Nineteen on the Park.
