

GWONNA FLY NOW

Jacqueline Rintjema attempts to execute a double salchow jump while testing for her gold elements during the Stouffville Skating Club's test day at the Stouffville Clippers Sports Complex. Go to yorkregion.com for results.

JULIE WILLIAMS PHOTO

Respite Stays at Amica at Swan Lake. Something to feel good about.

If you need a break as a primary caregiver to an elderly loved one, or they require TLC after hospital discharge, consider Amica at Swan Lake for a comfortable, secure respite stay. Here they'll have the comfort of a private suite with the peace of mind that professionals are on staff to attend to their needs. They will enjoy nutritious meals, the company of others and an endless range of activities that promote Wellness & Vitality™.

First week free when you book 30 day Respite Stay.
Call us today!

Amica at Swan Lake
6360 16th Avenue
Markham, ON L3P 7Y6
905.201.6078 • www.amica.ca

Host Stars just miss final

The Stouffville Markham bantam A Stars advanced to the semifinals of their 23rd annual hockey tournament before they were edged 2-1 by the Sudbury Lady Wolves at the Stouffville Arena Sunday.

Dana Drew scored the lone goal for the Stars. Frances Tenney played a solid game in goal enabling the Stars to remain in contention until the final buzzer.

The Stars got off to a good start by blanking the Rideau St. Lawrence Thunder 2-0.

Hannah Daniels and Emma Tworzyanski scored. Payton Melvin had the shutout.

After losing their second game against the North York Storm 1-0, the Stars received a sound netminding performance from Tenney and battled back to play the West Northumberland Wild to a 0-0 tie.

With a berth in the semifinal on the line, the Stars gained a measure of revenge against North York with a 3-0 win.

Daniels, Andrea Elia and Tworzyanski scored and Melvin recorded the shutout.

Temiskaming Shores won the A crown with a 2-1 shootout win over Sudbury.

The Oakville Hornets captured the AA crown with a 1-0 win over Clarington.

The Stars entry battled Toronto Leaside to a 3-3 tie in their first game before losing to the Sarnia Lady Sting 2-1 and North Bay Ice Boltz 4-0. They concluded the tournament with a 4-1 win over Windsor.

In the BB final, the Oakville Hornets 1265 entry defeated the Oakville Hornets 1266 team 2-0.

In the B final, the Sudbury Lady Wolves edged the Ingersoll Ice 4-3 in a shootout.

The Stars lost their first game to the Oakville Hornets 2-0 before rebounding to defeat the Vaughan Flames B 6-0.

The Stars then lost to the Sudbury Lady Wolves 2-1 and Ingersoll Ice 3-0.

- DISHES
- GOOD CONDITION
- DONATE
- ~~BLUE BOX~~

Please do not place unwanted dishes, pots and pans in the Blue Box. Items in good condition are best donated for reuse.

Don't know where it goes? Use The Bin-dicator tool at www.york.ca/waste

For collection inquiries please contact your local municipality.

AURORA

East Gwillimbury

MARKHAM

Newmarket

Richmond Hill

VAUGHAN

TOWN OF WHITCHURCH-STOUFFVILLE

For more information, visit www.york.ca/waste or call 1-877-449-9675 ext. 3000

York Region