

TRANSIT

Added GO train for commuters

BY SEAN PEARCE

The new year will bring changes to select GO Transit services in York Region and around the GTA.

As of Jan. 5, users of the Stouffville and Richmond Hill GO rail lines will have an earlier train option in the afternoon, while passengers on the Barrie and Lakeshore lines will enjoy a roomier ride with 320 more seats per trip thanks to the addition of 16 rail cars for certain trips.

A new train trip from Union Station at 3:10 p.m. will make all stops to Richmond

Hill GO station, arriving at 3:52 p.m.

Afternoon bus trips from Union Station to Richmond Hill at 3:10, 3:15, and 3:40 p.m. will be replaced by the new train trip; they will no longer operate.

One bus trip from Union Station at 2:40 p.m. will now leave 30 minutes earlier at 2:10 p.m.

There are other changes to rail service outside York Region.

SPEAK OUT

"So what if it is about the money? Teachers still do what you cannot and never will. Try to actually be a part of a field before you use glib, vague stock responses."
