

DOING MICKEY PROUD

Ethan Bennett enjoys a slide with his mom, Lindsay Bennett, down Hunt's Hill at Rupert Park. The hill is named for the late Mickey Hunt, who lived next to the park for many years. The elevation was created back in the 1960s from basement excavations during construction of a nearby subdivision and Parkview Home for Seniors. When Mr. Hunt saw dozens of children, including five of his own, enjoying the man-made mountain, he appealed to then-reeve Ken Laushway to have it preserved. It's remained ever since.
