

CARLSON, Barry James

Barry was taken peacefully in his sleep at the young age of 62 years on January 21st, 2013.

Beloved husband and best friend to Lynda for 44 years, treasured father to Tamara and Darren, "Grandpa" to Austin and Tristan Meilunas, and "Bear" to many, many friends.

He will always be remembered for his infectious grin and huge heart. Although a man of few words, when he spoke those around him listened.

A celebration of his life and interment will be held in Stouffville at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations be made to the Stouffville Skate Park Fund. This will honor his long career in Facility Management and love for building and architecture. Barry's family will erect a treed viewing area in his honor, providing a place for his grandsons to visit his spirit.
