

Stouffvillicious serving up deals

Eating. We've all got to do it, so why not experiment a little and try a new downtown eatery during Stouffvillicious?

"People are always reluctant to change," said Anna Rose, downtown co-ordinator for the town, which is partially why she brought this event to town three years ago.

For example, you've never eaten at Fishbone Bistro because you think it's too expensive. However, during Stouffvillicious, which runs from Feb. 15 to March 31, they have fixed-price lunches ($20) and dinners ($30), which both include an appetizer, soup or salad, main dish and dessert.

Want something a little more reminiscent of weekend comfort food mom used to whip up? Head over to Annie's Kitchen, where breakfasts with eggs, home fries, meat, toast and a drink range from $5.99 to $9.99. Lunches that include a sandwich or chili cost $7.99.

Also serving up a fixed-price lunch is the Red Bulb Espresso Bar.

The $10 meal includes a specialty coffee or tea, quiche or empanada with salad and a pastry.

La Cuisine de ma Mere is offering a $20 dinner Thursdays to Saturdays from 5 to 9 p.m.

"The offerings are pretty darn good," according to Ms Rose.
