Ryder McIntyre scored twice for the Clippers while Brad Barker had a goal and one assist and Teo Stoilevski one goal.

Owen O'Leary, Ethan Hawco and Beckett Longmuir each collected one assist.

Liam Hrynewich played a solid game between the pipes to help preserve the win for the Clippers, who will face Guelph or Milton in the final.

The Clippers took a stranglehold in the series after skating off with a 3-1 road win Saturday. Jaiden Katsoras, Hawco and Connor Little each scored once for the Clippers.

Ryder McIntyre, Katsoras and O'Leary each had one helper. Noah Pitura had a solid outing in net for the win.

The Clippers will play Milton or Guelph in the Central Ontario final.

AA peewee Clippers fight back

Comeback complete.

The Stouffville major peewee AA Clippers overcame a two games to none deficit in their York Simcoe best-of-five or first-to-six point quarter-final series against Georgina to capture the deciding game with a 5-2 victory in Stouffville last week.

Daniel McKinley ignited the Clippers' offence with a pair of goals and one assist while Brydon Jewett, Sam Atanackovich and William Keith each added single tallies.

Nolan MacInnis and Ben Partridge each collected three assists. Brent Menzies handled net minding duties to earn the win.

With the victory, the Clippers will face TNT in the semifinals.

Minor midget As sweep Barrie in York

The Stouffville minor midget A Clippers advanced to the York Simcoe semifinals after sweeping their best-of-five quarter-final series over Barrie with a 5-4 win at the Stouffville Arena Sunday.

Erik Tammisto scored a pair of goals and had one assist for the Clippers. Jordan Brillinger added a goal and two helpers while Jackson Newlands and Braiden Singleton each had one goal. Braydon McNeil and Jason Mistelbacher each earned one assist.

Logan Hess made some timely saves to help preserve the win.

The Clippers took a stranglehold of the series with a 6-1 win at the Clippers Complex Saturday.

Singleton scored twice for the Clippers while Brillinger had a goal and two assists. Quintin Volpe one goal and one assist, Mistelbacher and Tyler Moffatt each had one goal.

Nic Davids was credited with two assists while Tritan Thompson had one.

B.J. Ivanovski had a solid game in goal.

As of press time, the Clippers were awaiting to see who their semifinal opponent will be.
