

Long-distance relationship behind show

Their geographical locations did not impeded artists Kristin Bjornerud and Erik Jerezano from collaborating. The result is Phantom Limbs, which is on at The Latcham Gallery through March 30.

Working in watercolour, gouache and ink, the Ottawa-based Ms Bjornerud and Toronto-based Mr. Jerezano sent fragments of their work to each other through the mail for five years to create a show that includes themes of masquerade, doubling and metamorphosis.

Individually, the artists have different approaches when it comes to exploring contemporary political themes, ecological motifs, personal narratives and myth-making via folk tales, dreams, magical realism and the phantasmagorical.

In 2010, Ms Bjornerud was awarded the Brucebo Fine Art Foundation Scholarship, which resulted in a three-month residency on the Swedish island of Gotland.

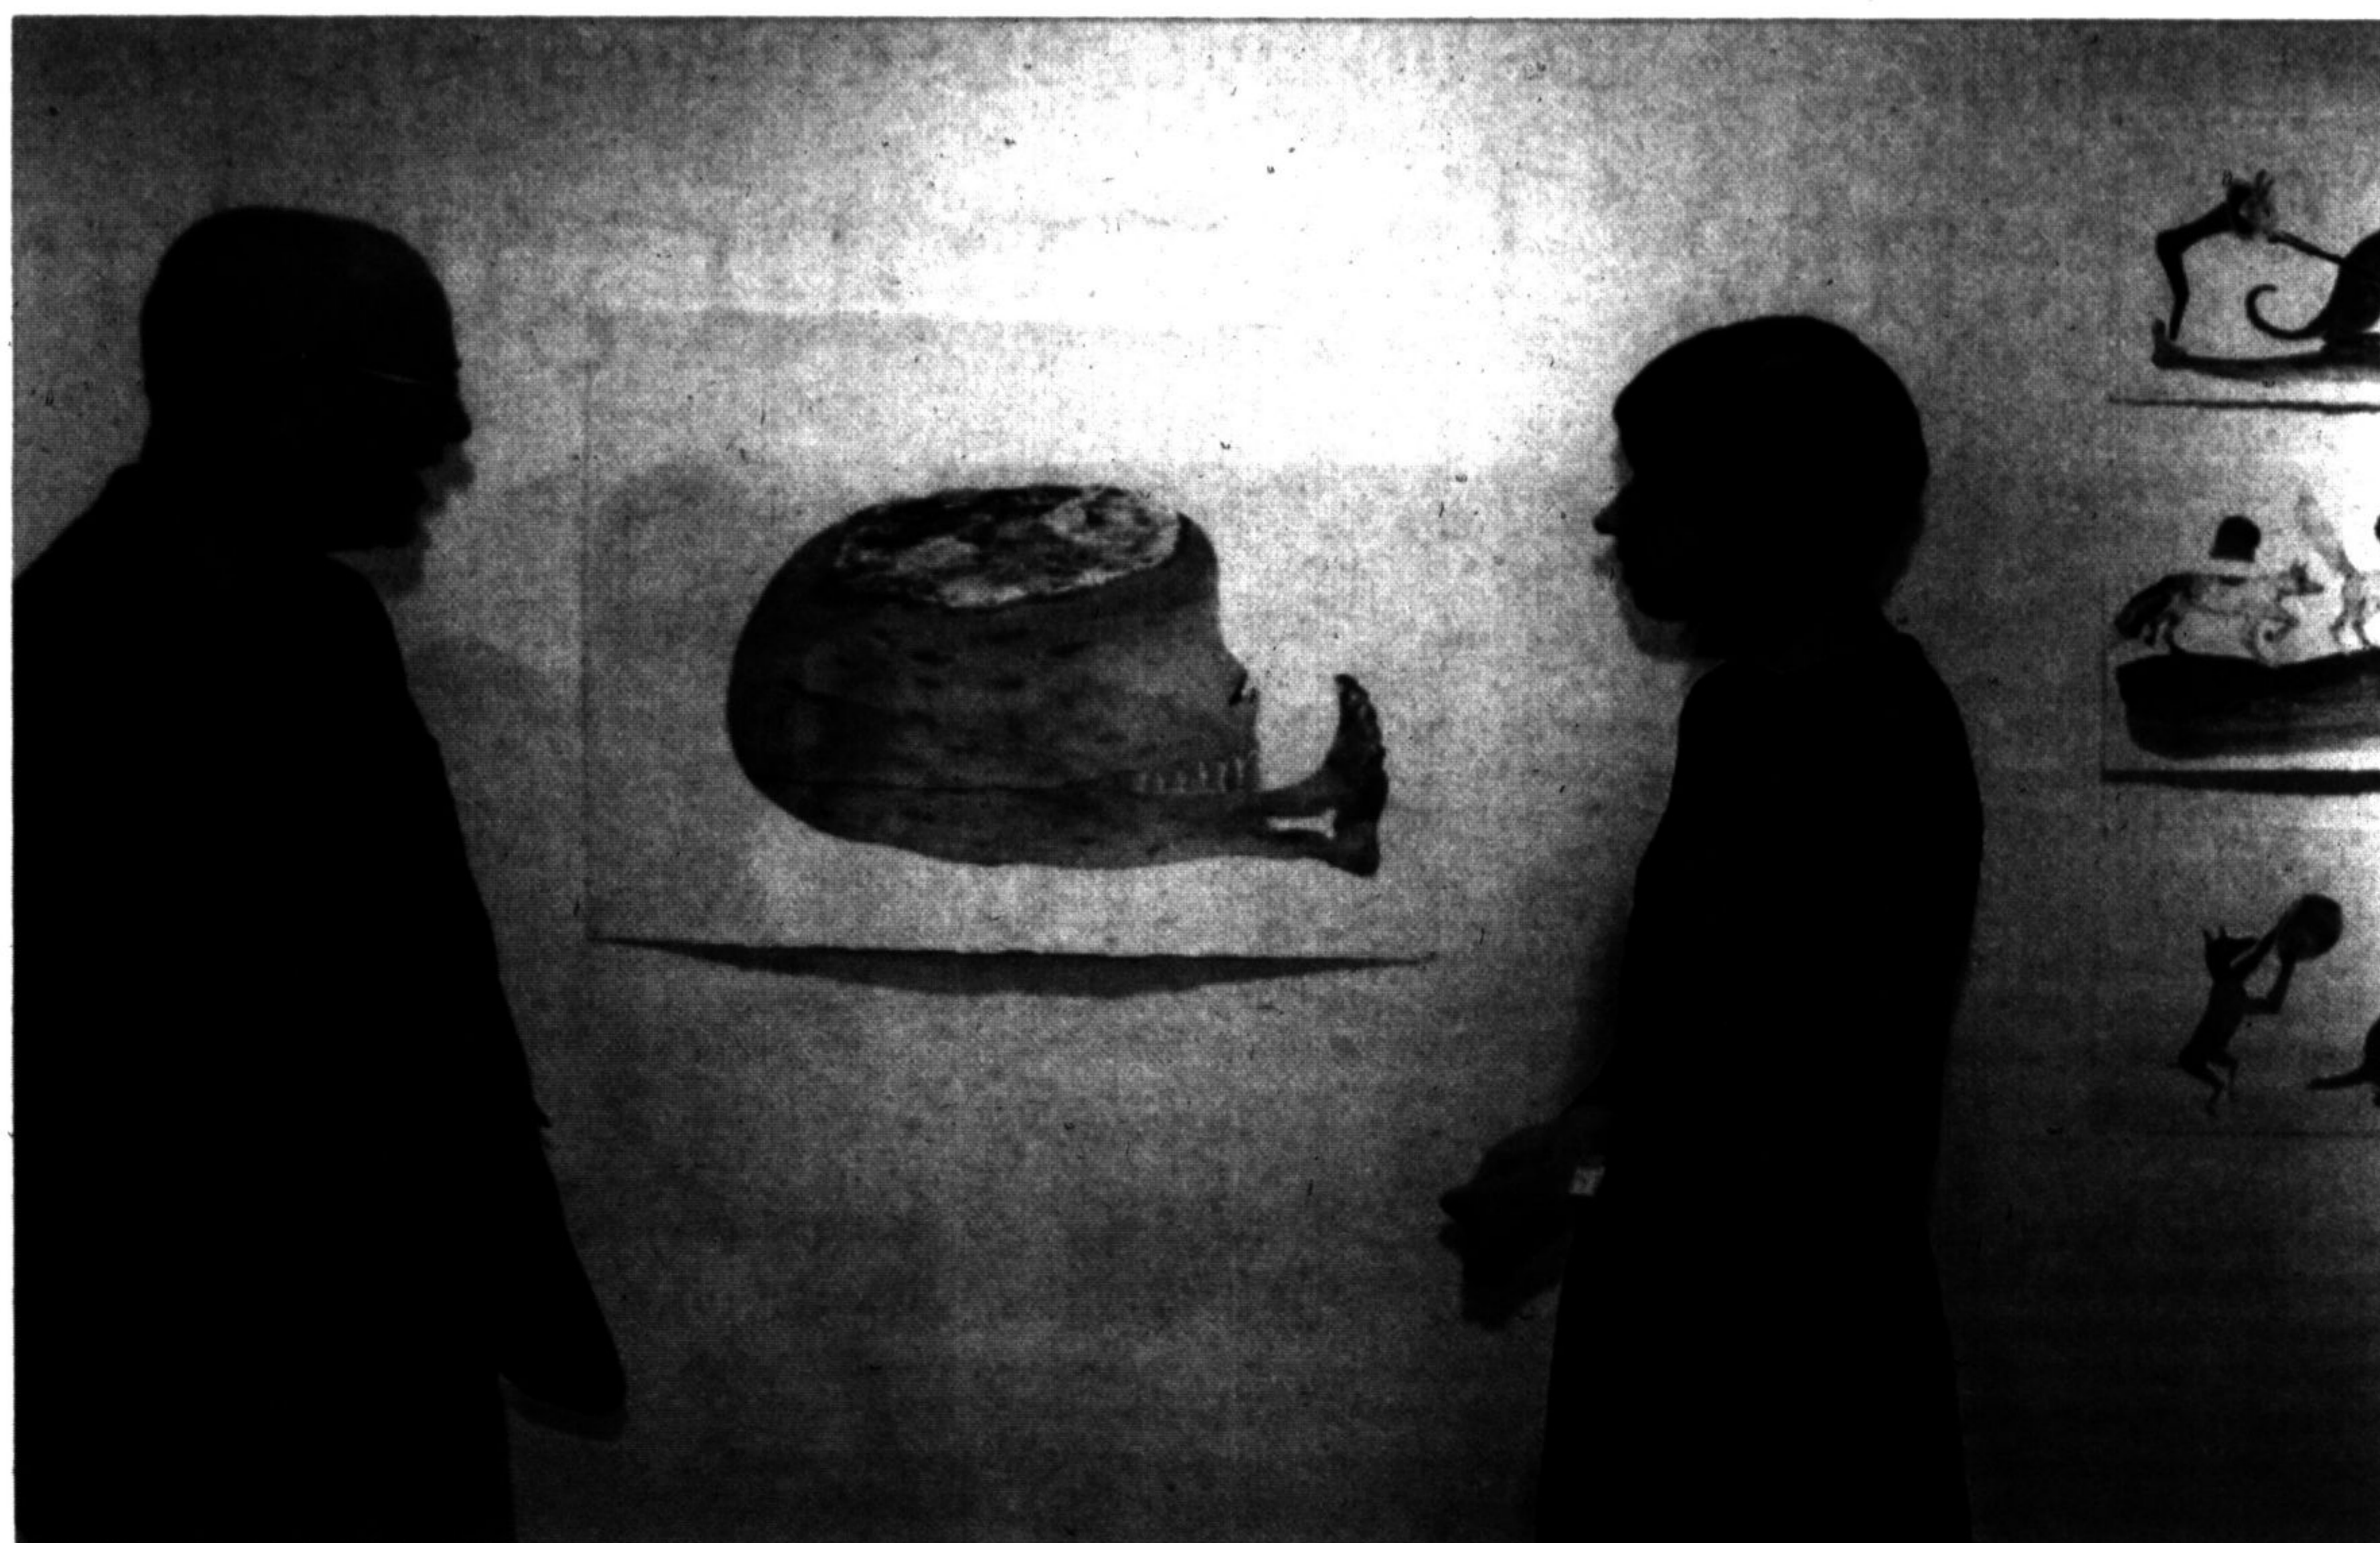

Her work is included in the Canada Council Art Bank, Saskatchewan Arts Board and City of Ottawa Fine Art collections.

Mr. Jerezano hails from Mexico. The self-taught artist came to Toronto in 2001. In 2005, his work was selected by New York's Drawing Center viewing program.

With two other artists, Mr. Jerezano has created Z'otz* Collective.

He has also been involved in a number of community-based mural projects in Mexico City.
