Minor bantam AE Clippers ice York Simcoe title

The Stouffville minor bantam AE Clippers skated off with the York Simcoe title after defeating the Barrie Colts in their best-of-five final series that was capped off with a 4-2 win in the fourth game in Stouffville Sunday.

Spotting the Colts a 1-0 lead, the Clippers came back with goals from Casey Shankland and Miller Boothby.

After the Colts came back to tie the game at 2-2 before the second period concluded, the Clippers regained the upper hand for good on a power-play goal from Mark Rossi.

With the Colts pulling their goalkeeper for an extra attacker late, the Clippers iced the game with a goal from Mitch Butler.

Luke Spagnuolo played a sound game in goal to help preserve the win for the Clippers.

Coached by Lio Spagnuolo, Peter O'Boyle, Bill Butler and Rob Taylor and managed by Beth Buchanan, other team members contributing to the club's title run included: team captain Tim Barker, Mitch Butler, Simon Horner, Jordan Kuettel, Rhys Barker, Luke Savage, Ryan Taylor, Ruien Lidster, Paul Assal, Kevin O'Boyle, Josh Marshall, Tommy Paul, Anthony Rustico and Ethan Rehel.

Clippers fall in juvenile final

The Stouffville juvenille Clippers made one dramatic comeback after overcoming a 2-0 deficit against Whitby to capture the best-of-five Ontario Minor Hockey Association semifinal series.

But when the Clippers faced the Ajax Knights in the best-of-five OMHA final, there was no such magic.

After losing the first two games 3-0 in Ajax March 16 and 3-2 in Stouffville last Friday, the Clippers were swept 3-2 in the third game in Ajax Sunday.

Trailing 1-0 in the first period, the Clippers tied the game just 10 seconds after Ajax scored on a goal by Mike Vitelli.

But before the period concluded, Ajax responded with two goals to take a 3-1 lead.

The Clippers got back to within a goal in the second period when Vitelli scored his second goal of the game on a shorthanded effort.

That would be as close as the Clippers would get as both teams failed to score in the third period.

Alex Campagna, Adam Cranley and Lloyd Davis each earned one assist for the Clippers.

Scoring for the Clippers in the second game were Cranley and David Rawson.

Kurt Batty, Brett Twizell and Davis each had one assist.

The Clippers will now prepare to host the Ontario Hockey Federation AAA championships at the Stouffville Arena from April 5 to 7.
