

Sun-Tribune wins 5 awards in North American contest

The Stouffville Sun-Tribune won five awards in a North American newspaper competition.

The Local Media Association's (formerly Suburban Newspapers of America) 2012 contest results were announced Monday.

Judging was done by the Medill School of Northwestern University in Illinois.

LMA is comprised of more than 2,000 newspapers in the United States and Canada.

The Sun-Tribune won:

- first for Best Non-Page-One Layout, which included a photo spread shot the night the Stouffville Spirit won the Ontario Junior Hockey League title.

- second for Best Editorial Page for page 6.

- third place for Best Front Page.
- honourable mention in Best Sports Writing for Morning, Man, Jim Mason's profile of TSN Radio host Mike Richards.

LMA is comprised of more than 2,000 newspapers in the United States and Canada.

- honourable mention in Best Feature Photo for Reflecting On The Game, a photo of a minor hockey dad shot by Steve Somerville at the Clippers Sports Complex.

Artists invited to submit work

Stouffville's Latcham Gallery has put the call for entries out for the annual Juried Exhibition, April 27 to June 1.

Entry is open to all artists in Ontario working in any media. A maximum of two recent (2011 to 2013) original works may be submitted by each artist.

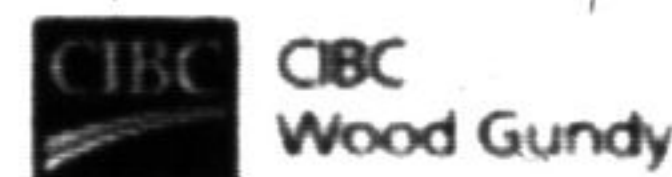

Cash prizes will be awarded.

Artwork drop-off date is April 22 from noon to 8 p.m.
