

STAFF PHOTOS/SJOERD WITTEVEEN

GRETZKY MAKES IT 'SPECIAL'

Bob Nicholson of Stouffville (from left), ex-NHLers Todd Harvey, Brian Muir and Marcel Dionne help Walter Gretzky pick a team at the 25th annual Wizard Foundation Hockey Playoff Draft at Angus Glen Monday. The event has raised more than $1.25 million for Special Olympics.

York Region Chairman Bill Fisch and police chief Eric Jolliffe applaud Special Olympians, including Matt Nighswander of Stouffville. Games will be played in York July 11 to 14.

8TH ANNUAL

Wine & Food Festival

Monday, June 3rd

6:30 - 9:30 pm

Ballantrae

Golf & C.C.

$ 40.00 Per Person

Theme - Tropical Island
colourful casual attire optional

Proceeds to Markham
Stouffville Hospital

Sun-Tribune
Media Sponsor

Come out and enjoy an evening of sampling fine wine and culinary delights from local wineries and restaurants.

Tickets available through Councillor Phil Bannon

905-640-7422 • www.philbannon.ca

SCS Sounds of Celebration FULL OF JOY!

Friday May 10, 2013 at 7:00pm

Springvale Baptist Church, 3885 Stouffville Road

Tickets $20/adult, $5/children

SCS proudly presents a dessert night featuring comedian Taylor Mason. He's appeared on a myriad of television programs, he has won awards, he's played Carnegie Hall and now Taylor Mason is coming to STOUFFVILLE. Taylor's hilarious show combines ventriloquism, music and comedy and has been making audiences of all ages laugh out loud for over 25 years.

Stouffville
Christian
School

For tickets call 905-887-3330 or email info@stouffvillechristianschool.com