Podium finishes for bikers

Two members of the Stouffville District Secondary School Spartans mountain biking team earned top-three placings at the first YRAA race of the season at Coulson Hill near Bradford Friday.

Racing under muddy conditions, Jenna Russ won the senior girls' event, a two-lap race measuring between three to four kilometres, in a time of 33:03.9.

Colin Mitchinson finished third in another two-lap event in the junior boys' division.

The next event is scheduled to take place at Centennial Trails in King City tomorrow.

Soccer girls blank Keswick school

The Stouffville District Secondary School Spartans senior girls' soccer team had a successful home opener, edging Our Lady of the Lake (Keswick) 1-0 in its York Region Athletic Association tier two match Monday.

Vanessa Mangos scored the game's lone goal in the second half. Amber Reesor recorded the shutout. Now 2-0 on the season, the Spartans were to play at Pierre Elliott Trudeau (Markham) yesterday.

Spartans tackle three wins

The Spartans junior and bantam boys along with the girls' rugby teams made it a clean sweep when they travelled to Newmarket for their YRAA rugby matches against Huron Heights Tuesday.

The Spartan juniors received one try apiece from Chad Harbour, Nick Rabito and Reed Savage in a 15-0 win. With the win, the Spartans improved its record to 2-0.

The Spartan bantams downed Huron Heights 17-10. Bailey Mortson had a try and one convert while Larry Heung and Danny Shields added tries for the Spartans, now 2-0.

In the girls' match, the Spartans won their first match with a 10-0 victory. Abbie Bauman and Hayley Desjardins each had one try. The Spartans improved to 1-0-1.

The Spartan senior and junior boys and girls are scheduled to host St. Maximilian Kolbe starting at 2:30 p.m. today.

Gormley youngster second at home

Matthew Yustin finished in a two-way tie for second place in his age group at the Canadian Junior Golf Association Junior Worlds Qualifier at Station Creek Golf Club's north course in Gormley Sunday.

Competing in the boys 15-19 grouping, the Gormley resident finished 12-over par through the two-round event at 152 (81-71).

Yustin and Henry Moon of Thornhill finished four strokes behind Kyle Gorospe of Mississauga, who was eight over par at 148.
