Lifelong member of the Eastridge Evangelical Missionary Church; his unwavering faith will be recalled by all who attend there. At the age of 73 his years of grateful service to the Lord were culminated when he participated in a three week mission to Africa, which gave him much joy and fulfillment. Summer vacations and weekends at Elm Lodge in Peterborough, were his passion for 48 years. His house trailer and boat, was his mainstay. Family gatherings there were his pride and joy. Garth's purpose was to provide for his family a life of love and comfort, and to have them around as much as possible. He will be heart wrenchingly missed.
