

Mustang U13 girls gallop to Muskoka tournament championship

The Stouffville Mustangs under-13 girls took to the pitch for its first tournament of the season and came away winners at the Muskoka Early Summer Soccer Tournament in Bracebridge last weekend.

With seven teams in their division, which was a mixed U14 and U13 Division, the Mustangs battled Huntsville to a 1-1 tie before downing Bracebridge under-13 4-1.

The Mustangs then played North Toronto Red to a 0-0 tie and then blanked North Toronto Blue 2-0 to finish second in their pool.

Facing the first place hosts, Bracebridge Storm under 14s in the finals, the Mustangs emerged with a hard-fought 1-0 win that went into a shootout.

Contributing in the weekend tournament win were Kate Van Herpt, Angelina Campbell, Emma Panacci, Julia Elia, Lizzie Garnett, Toni Ronco, Ashanti Clarke Cordick, Jahnai Brown, Abby Champion, Megan Sutton, Lydia Philpott, Jenna Legrow, Saara Habib, Ashleigh Boulianne, Katelyn Hanna and Alessia Desantis.

The team was coached by Colorado Panacci and Anthony Piccione. Manager was Mary Elia.

Sivabalasingham bounced in first round of match play

Gajan Sivabalasingham's stay at the Golf Association of Ontario's Men's Match Play Championships at the Lake Joseph Golf Club near Port Carling was brief last week.

The 20-year-old Ballantrae resident who was ranked fifth, was eliminated in the first round by 60th ranked Keegan Tyers, 23, of Newmarket, 2 and 1 in the first round.

Gurdyal ninth in CJGA event

Alex Gurdyal carded a nine-over par 81 to finish ninth in his age group division at the Canadian Junior Golf Association's U.S. Kids World Championship Team East qualifier at the Maples of Ballantrae Golf Club in Stouffville Sunday.

Competing in the Boys 9 and 10 group, the Stouffville resident was eight shots behind winner Kavith Ranchagoda of Richmond Hill, who finished one-over par at 73.

For more on the CJGA, log onto: www.cjga.com

SPORTS BRIEFS

Christian school on track

Students from Stouffville Christian School made their presence felt at the ACSI track and field meet in Toronto after returning with the school's first-ever championship team banner.

Competing in a field of 15 schools, Stouffville Christian's bantam (grades 3 and 4) team finished first.

Among individual results posted by Stouffville participants in the bantam division, Sarah Gillissie was first in the girls' 200 and 400 metres and third high jump.

Jennifer Ward was first in the girls' 800m and second 1,500m. Victoria Gillissie was second in the girls' standing long jump.

The girls' relay team of Victoria Gillissie, Julia Holmes, Megan Clements and Sarah Gillissie were third.

In the bantam boys' field, Lucas

Vincent was first in the 100 and 200m and second softball throw. Thomas Masson was first in the 400 and 800m.

Third-place efforts came from Alex Burns in softball throw and Samuel Lucas 200m.

The relay team of Vincent, Masson, Burns and Conor Hough was first.

In the junior (Grades 5 and 6) girls division, Samantha Rae was first in the 200m and third 200m.

Hannah Leonituk was second in softball throw.

Third-place showings came from Emma Burns in triple jump and high jump and Abby Roberts high jump.

The relay team of Burns, Roberts, Rae and Charlotte Shankland was third.

Among junior boys, Matthew Kovak was second in the 100m and triple jump.

Jack Smalley was second in 200m and 800m and third standing long jump. Michael Creegan was third in softball throw.

In the Grade 7 division, Miriam Legemaate was third in the girls' high jump and long jump.

Cameron Hough was third in the boys' 80m hurdles and triple jump.

Among Grade 8 participants, Maddie Li was first in the girls' 80m hurdles, triple jump and high jump.

Christina Lucas was first in discus, second 80m hurdles and shot put. Hayley Stover won the running long jump and was third in 100m and shot put.

Nicole Burns was second in triple jump and third 800m.

The relay team of Li, Lucas, Stover and Burns finished first.

In the boys' division, Tim Barker was third in discus and shot put.

Geiger seventh in NTL meet

Natalie Geiger finished seventh in the women's 400 metre race at the National Track League's Toronto Invitational Track and Field Games at the University of Toronto Tuesday.

The Stouffville resident and Stouffville District Secondary School graduate was timed in 55.76 seconds.

Mary Wineberg of the United States won the race in 51.86.

- Michael Hayakawa metrolandmedia

WagJag

Save up to 95%

IT'S FREE! Sign up today at www.wagjag.com

$14.50 for a Day Pass to Wild Water Kingdom Water Park
(a $36 value)

Discount:
60%

SAVE $21.5

Up to 61% off Interior and Exterior
Auto Detailing from On Site
Mobile Car Spa
(2 Options)

SAVE $61

$99 for 1 Week of Children's Summer Academic Art Camp at Roksolana Art School
(up to a $225 Value)

SAVE $126

WagJag brought to you by your trusted hometown
Metroland Newspaper

Sun-Tribune

To advertise your deal call one of our Metroland
Sales Representatives at 905-727-0819 ext 389