

Lawn bowlers roll to silver, bronze at York Region 55+ Games

The Stouffville Lawn Bowling Club came away with a pair of medals from the York Region 55+ Games in Georgina last week.

The tandem of Sandra and George Iwasiw captured the silver medal in mixed pairs.

In the same event, the Stouffville team of Joan and Iggy Natoli were awarded the bronze medal.

Four other Stouffville entries took part in the games including the trebles teams of Bob and Nancy Stover and Marg Curtis, Audrey Gibson, Nelda Morley and Kevin McWhinnie, and Joe and Donna Powers and Gary Davis.

On a separate note, two Stouffville Lawn Bowling Club teams earned high honours when they took part in the club's annual Women's Trebles Tournament, sponsored by the local Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce branch last Thursday.

The Stouffville team of Gert Brugger, Nelda Morley and Audrey Gibson were the second high three game winners.

Another Stouffville team of Jane Hachey, Edna Piette and Donna Powers were high two game winners.

In the club's upcoming events calendar, they will host the District Men's Singles Tournament Saturday and Sunday starting at 9 a.m.

The club will also be the site for the Strawberry Festival Tour-ament next Thursday starting at 1:30 p.m.

The tournament has been played around the Canada Day weekend in Stouffville for almost a quarter of a century.

Local bowlers and those from many other clubs will enjoy this historic contest.

After their second game, the bowlers will break for dinner at the Stouffville Lions Beef Barbecue, which has become part of the tournament tradition.

Sadekar 13th in CN Ladies golf event in Quebec

Seema Sadekar shot a four-over par 148 through two rounds to finish in a four-way tie for 13th place at the recent CN Canadian Women's Tour Quebec event at the Club de Golf Cowansville in Cowansville, Que.

The former Stouffville resident shot rounds of 75 and 73 on the 6,110-yard, par 72 course.

A graduate of the University of Las Vegas Nevada, Sadekar finished nine shots behind winner Jennifer Kirby of Paris, Ont., who was five-under par at 139 (69-70).

NASCAR team disappointed

The Stouffville-based EHR/Team Three Red racing team was hoping Jason Hathaway's past success at Delaware Speedway would be a good omen when it returned for the NASCAR Canadian Tire North EMCO 200 event in London Saturday.

However, it wasn't meant to be when Hathaway and the Snap-on Tools/Rockstar Energy Drink Dodge finished a disappointing 11th.

After practises in which he was third on the speed charts and finishing sixth in qualifying, Hathaway started the 200-lap event on the outside of row three and was in fifth place through 17 laps.

Moving up into fourth place for a brief period, Hathaway detected some vibration in his car.

By the time Hathaway brought his vehicle to the attention of his pit crew, his left front tire was flat.

Hathaway battled back as much as he could but was running on his own lap for the remainder of the race, recording some fast laps and working his way back up to 11th. Pete Shepherd III won.

Next up is the Clarington 200 at Canadian Tire Motorsports Park near Bowmanville Saturday.
