

Gurdyal one back at CJGA event

Alex Gurdyal shot a five-over par 75 to finish second in his age group division at the Canadian Junior Golf Association Ontario Junior Linkster Series at Deer Run Golf Club near Whitby Sunday.

Competing in the Boys 9 and 10 group, the Stouffville resident finished one shot behind winner Christian Leduc of Innisfil, who was four-over par at 74.

Hathaway 2nd in NASCAR North

The Stouffville-based EHR/Team Three Red racing team did not let the grey skies and rain dampen their spirits when they took to the Canadian Tire Motorsports Park oval for the NASCAR North Canadian Tire Clarington 200 race near Bowmanville Saturday.

When the 200-lap event concluded, Jason Hathaway had steered the Snap-on Tools/Rockstar Energy Drink Dodge to a fourth place finish.

For Hathaway, it marked the second time this season he recorded a top-five finish.

In the overall series standings, Hathaway is second with 114 points, just one behind leader D.J. Kennington.

The EHR/Team Three Red team will have a few weeks off to prepare for the Jiffy Lube 100 presented by Snap-on Tools at the ICAR circuit at Mirabel Airport north of Montreal July 8.

Sadekar 39th at CN Tour stop

Seema Sadekar finished in a six-way tie in 39th place at the recent CN Women's Tour golf event held at the Ambassador Golf Club in Windsor.

Through the two round event, the former Stouffville resident finished seven over par at 149 (75-74) on the par 71, 6,148-yard course.

Emily Childs of Alameda, Calif. won the event in a playoff against Jessica Shepley of Oakville.

Through 36 holes, Childs and Shepley were eight-under par at 134.

Buttermakers' tourney returns

BY MICHAEL HAYAKAWA

A revival of sorts will be taking place at the Strawberry Festival in Stouffville.

The Buttermakers slo-pitch team will serve as hosts for a tournament that was once a staple of the festival but was discontinued after 2002.

The tournament will be headquartered at the Bethesda Park diamonds starting tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. and continue Saturday from 10 a.m. and wind down Sunday with the finals.

Paul Sinclair, a 44-year-old Stouffville resident and member of the Buttermakers team for 24 seasons, said 20 teams from across Ontario have confirmed their participation.

"We have entries from Barrie and Peterborough and I'm hoping to get anywhere from 24 to 28," he said.

Participating teams will be entered in one of four divisions including: masters (35 and over), ladies, mixed and men's.

Among the local teams competing in the masters will be the A & S Raiders, a team which the Buttermakers considered as one of their rivals.

Sinclair said the idea of bringing back the tourney began last year when a Buttermakers alumni team took to the ball diamonds at the Uxbridge Diamond Duster tournament.

"We had about 20 guys come out and it was a fun weekend and showed there was still some interest," he said.

With this year marking the Buttermakers' 35th anniversary, Mayor Wayne Emmerson, who was an original team member, asked the club if they wanted to be a part of this year's festival.

Sinclair said the majority of games will be played at the Bethesda diamonds, which will also be home to a beer garden.

Sinclair is hoping this year's event might be the start of a return with the club hosting the slo-pitch event on an annual basis at the Strawberry Festival.

"We had enough guys now. If we enjoy it we could keep it going," he said.
