

CANADA DAY

You can buy groceries, but not adult beverages

Have no fear, if you run out of buns and burgers, two local grocery stores will be open Monday.

But if you need to replenish your adult beverages, you'll be out of luck. Both the Beer Store and LCBO outlet will be closed Canada Day.

NoFrills is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Metro from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Walmart and Canadian Tire are both closed.

So, too, is the town's fitness centre at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Leisure Centre. However, the pool will be open for lane and leisure swimming, as well as aquafit and parent and tot time.

POOL OPEN, FITNESS CENTRE CLOSED

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library is closed Saturday, Sunday and Monday, as is the Stouffville Arena.

The Stouffville Clippers Sports Complex is open Saturday, but closed Sunday and Monday.

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum is open Sunday but closed Saturday and Monday.

The municipal office is closed Monday and will re-open Tuesday at 8:30 a.m.

SORRY, FATHER

Stouffville parish priest Father Michael Hughes pleads with the children from inside the dunk tank during the St. Brigid Catholic Elementary School year-end barbecue before getting back on his perch.
