Riverin Law Firm has been serving clients in the greater Stouffville area since 2004. With over twenty years of legal experience, our practice focuses on real estate law, wills and estates and business law. Our firm also offers paralegal services for Small Claims Court matters as well as notarization and commissioning services.

Conveniently located at Ninth Line and Bloomington with lots of available parking, our services are offered in English and French with appointments available on evenings and weekends.

Using a practical approach, we aim to complete your real estate transaction, your wills or your business agreements and negotiations effectively and without undue delays and expense.

We pride ourselves on being attentive and responsive to our clients. We place emphasis on serving each individual need, making sure we provide them with the personalized legal advice our clients need to make sound and informed decisions in a straightforward manner.

We are always available to answer our clients' questions and believe in being responsive and providing excellence in client service.

Please feel free to contact us!
