Life in the fast lane

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum and Community Centre held its 40th annual Antique and Classic Car Show Sunday. More than 1,600 guests got a look at the 300-plus antique/classic cars participating. Greetings are announced by the Whitchurch-Stouffville town crier Marcel Bossi (clockwise from top), a 1956 Mercury Montclair, owned by Jack Owen, was named Early Classic Winner; Marg Webb of Ballantrae looks at her reflection in a 1941 Cadillac and Martin Wallace admires a 1953 Buick.
