

Golfer, 10, one up on dad thanks to hole-in-one

BY MICHAEL HAYAKAWA

At 10 years of age, Connor Musson accomplished something his father Sean has yet to do – hit a hole-in-one.

Connor made his shot of a lifetime at the Maples of Ballantrae Golf Club's executive course Friday.

Playing with his brother Ethan and father, Connor pulled out his driver on the 155-yard second hole. The ball struck the ground just before the green then rolled onto the green and straight into the hole.

"I put my arms up in the air and said 'yeah baby' and then my dad was giving me high fives," said the Grade 5 student at St. Brendan Catholic School.

Making Connor's feat even more remarkable was that he's just been playing the game for two years.

"It makes me feel pretty good to make it because my dad has played for a long time and never got one," Connor said.

Connor was reminded by his dad that he had to buy everyone something to drink.

"I was lucky because nobody was in the clubhouse when we went in," Connor said with a laugh.

The family went to a local restaurant to commemorate the occasion.

Connor Musson celebrates at the Maples.
