NOMINATE SOMEONE TODAY!

Nominations are now being accepted for the Ontario Junior Citizen of the Year Awards

The strength of our community lies in solid citizens.

If you know a young person, aged 6 to 17, who is involved in worthwhile community service; a special person who is contributing while living with a limitation; a youth who has performed an act of heroism; or a 'good kid' who shows a commitment to making life better for others, doing more than is normally expected of someone their age – help us recognize their contribution – nominate them today!

Nominations will be accepted until November 30

The Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville's draft budget will be released Dec. 3 and in it, is an expected 2 per cent net increase in operating costs, according to a report to council this week.

"Hopefully we can do better," said Mayor Wayne Emmerson during Tuesday afternoon's council meeting.

The 2014 budget will be considered during an open council meeting Jan. 28 and, if necessary, Jan. 29.

Staff requested and was granted the opportunity for pre-approval of any urgent 2014 capital projects to be given during the Dec. 3 meeting.

The 2014 budget will be considered during an open council meeting Jan. 28 and, if necessary, Jan. 29.

When released, copies of the draft budget will be available at the municipal office, library and on the town's website, www.townofws.ca

Go mobile, online at business conference hosted by town next week

Winning in an Online World: New Ways to Work Smarter and Grow Your Company is a York Region Business Innovation in Changing Times conference being hosted by the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville next Thursday.

Keynote speakers will discuss buying and selling online, integrating social media into an organization's website and leveraging mobile technology.

The Changing Times series provides York Region businesses with access to ideas, insights and resources that will help them adapt and succeed in the changing marketplace, according to a media release from the municipality.

Winning in an Online World takes place at Meadowbrook Golf and Country Club, 11939 Warden Ave., Sept. 26 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Tickets are $65 per person and include a light breakfast and lunch.
