Trevor Carrick was among 29 players chosen to play for Team OHL in a two-game series against a Russian junior national team in the 2013 Subway Super Series, the Ontario Hockey League announced Wednesday.

The 19-year-old Stouffville resident and defenceman with the Mis-sisauga Steelheads was named for the Team OHL roster that will play the Russians in Sudbury Nov. 25.

A third-year member with the Steelheads, Carrick has eight goals and eight assists in 15 tilts this season.

A fourth round draft pick of the Carolina Hurricanes in the 2012 National Hockey League entry draft, Carrick also played with the Stouffville Spirit of the Ontario

Junior Hockey League in the 2010-11 season before going to Mississauga the following year.

The Team OHL rosters were assembled by a selection committee that included Jeff Twohey of the Oshawa Generals, and Owen Sound Attack general manager Dale DeGray.

Twohey and DeGray worked in consultation with Hockey Canada head scout Ryan Jankowski.
